Where Power Meets Design.

Discover furniture that hides the cords, streamlines the clutter, and keeps your team powered up without distraction.

Seamless Technology Integration.

In 2025, truly effective workspaces make technology accessible without making it visible. Cable management is no longer an afterthought – it's a design priority.

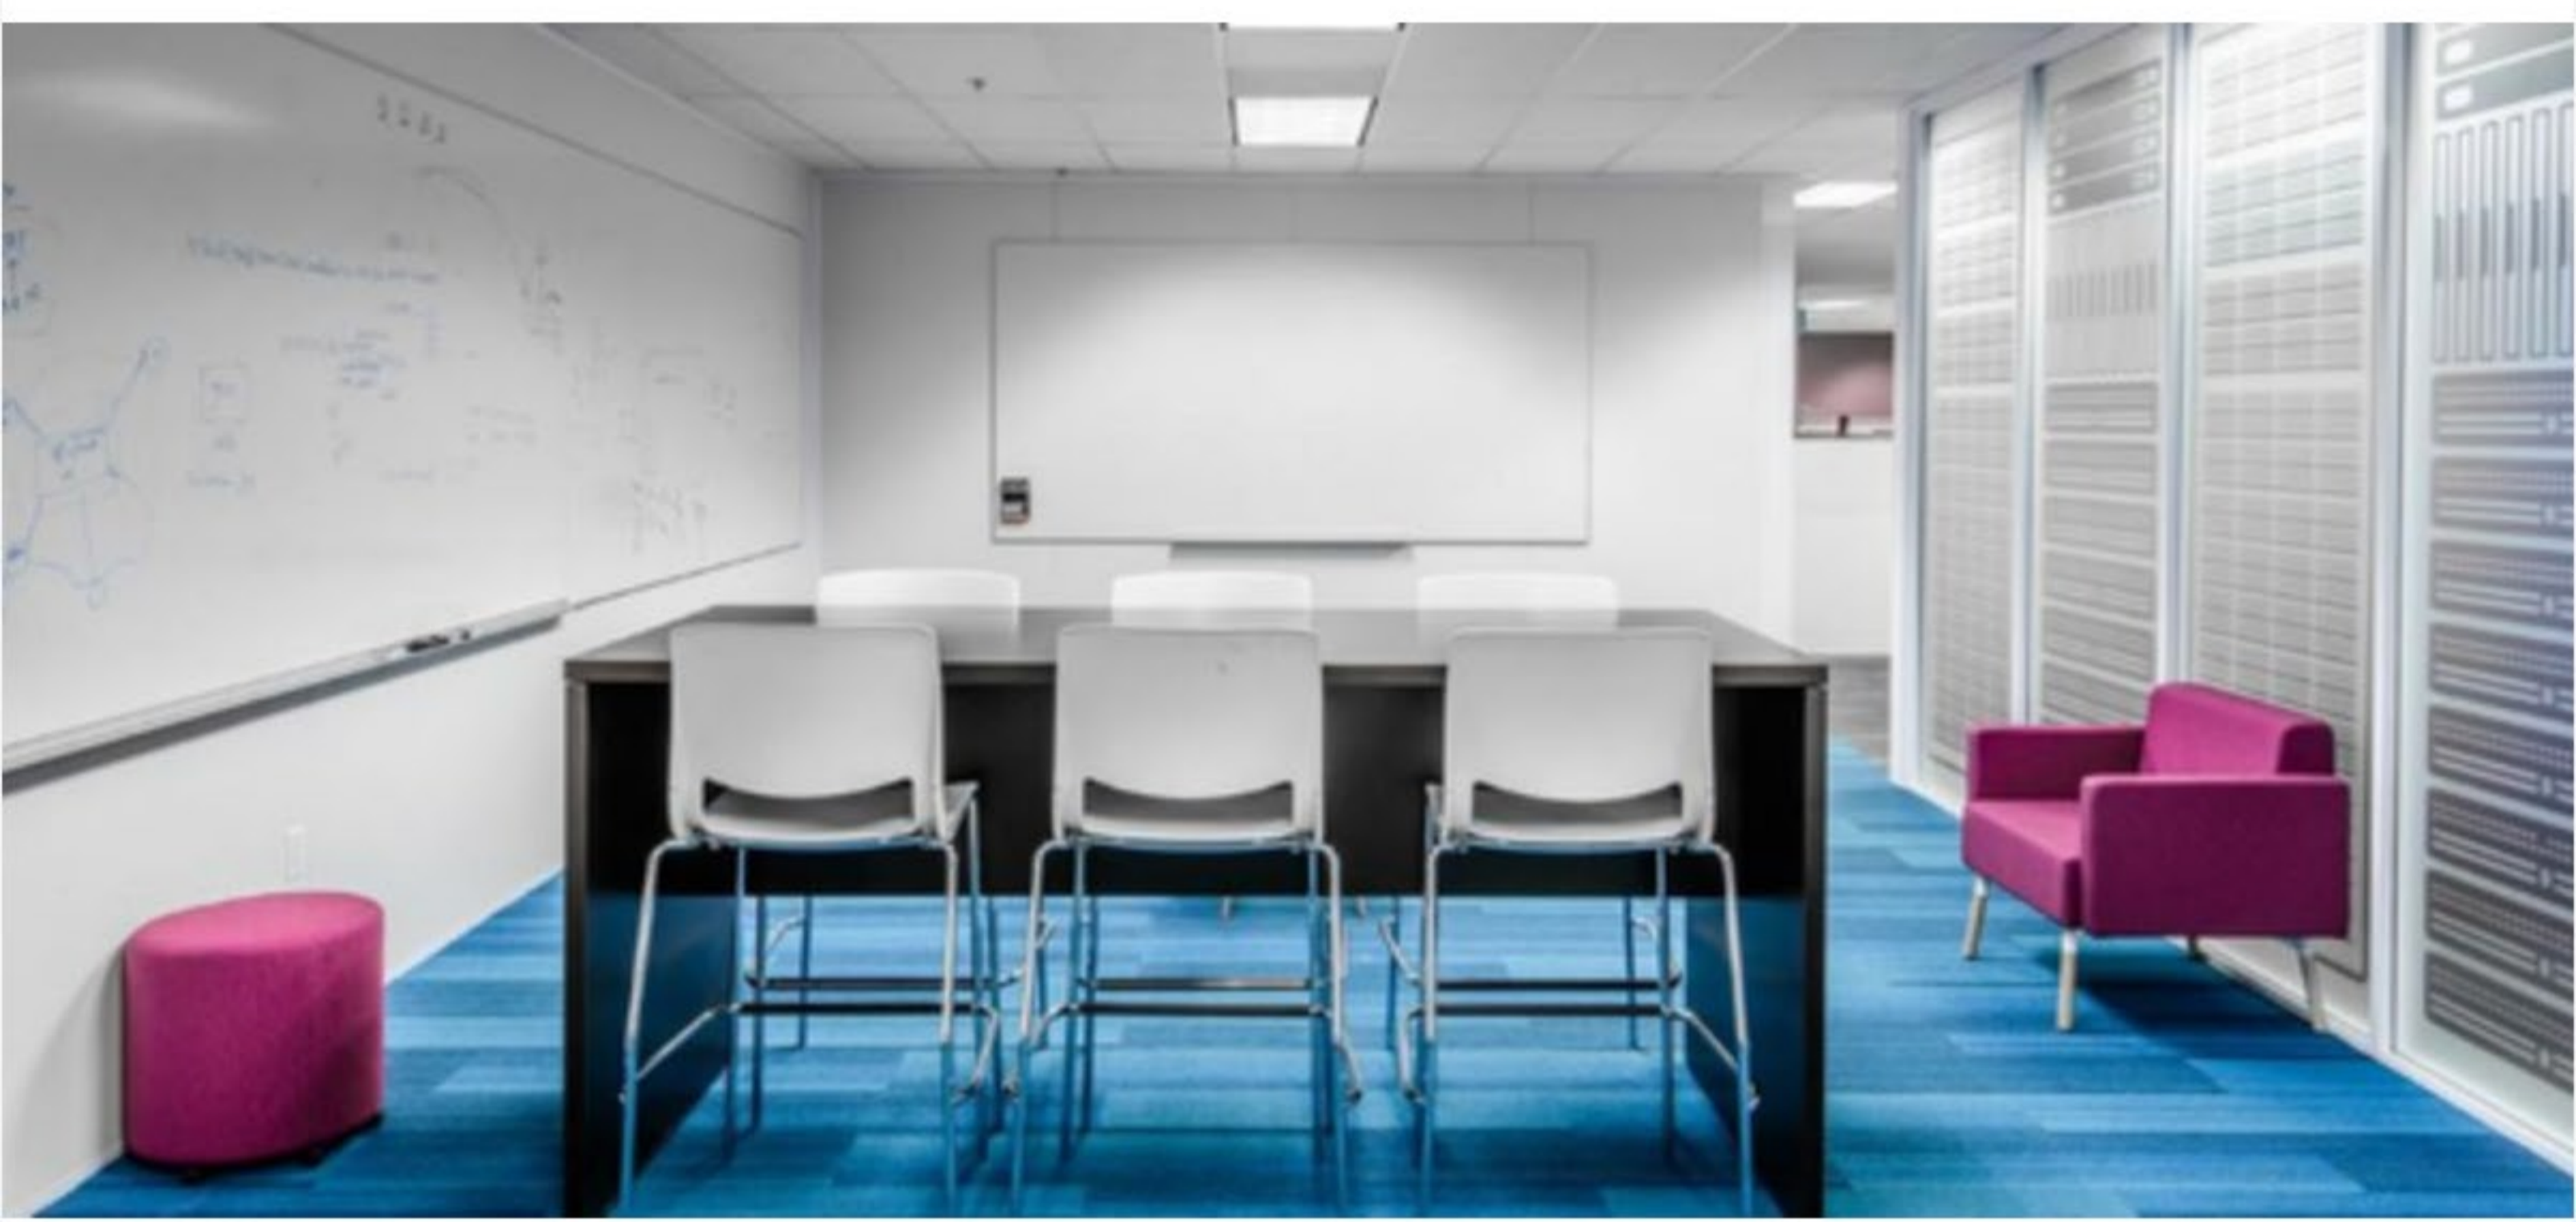

Our showroom demonstrates elegant solutions for power access, from conference tables with built-in charging to modular wall systems that conceal power infrastructure while keeping it easily accessible.

Our Top Tech-Enabled Picks—Smart, Sleek, and Ready to Work.

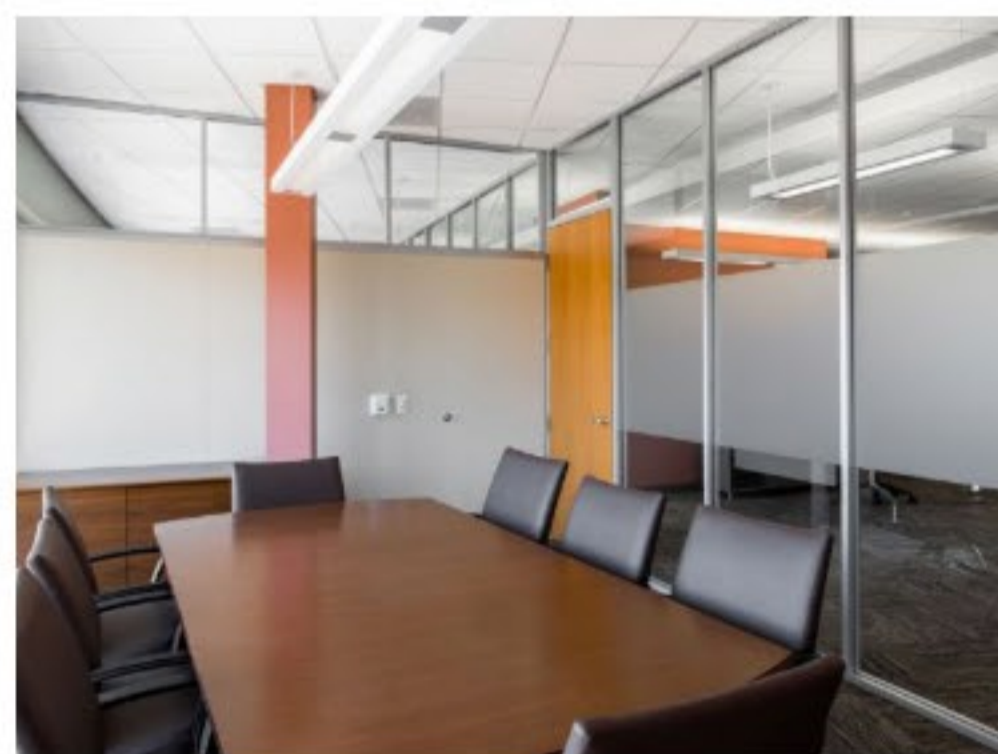

Check out our tech-enabled conference spaces featuring the OFS Obeya™ system with integrated power, data, and wireless charging capabilities that keep connections convenient and cables contained.

Obeya Architectural Structures

Creative folks will tell you that a point of reference can often times produce far more creativity than starting with a blank canvas. This is the fundamental essence of Obeya. Through the richness of wood, its design was intended to simplify and define space.
